East West Hoedown marks 9th year of giving back to the community

Vail, CO (June 2009) – East West Partners, Slifer Smith and Frampton Real and East West Resorts are pleased to announce plans for their ninth annual “East West Hoedown”. The event raises over $30,000 annually for various programs and other charitable causes throughout Eagle County since 2000. This year’s event will be held on Friday, September 11th at the Eagle County Fairgrounds located in Eagle. This year 2 beneficiaries will split the proceeds from the event. The 2009 Hoedown beneficiaries are First Descents and Colorado Mountain College Hero Scholarship.

“The Hoedown is always great fun,” said Rod Slifer of Slifer Smith & Frampton Real Estate. “Our companies have always been proud supporters of the community and this event is a tremendous way to show our support. We are excited for the support this will bring our 2009 beneficiaries.”

The East West Hoedown will include a silent auction, barbeque dinner, western costume contest, bull riding, dancing and music by The Laughing Bones. Tickets are $60 a person with all money raised going to the beneficiaries. To learn more about the event or the beneficiaries, or to donate a silent auction item please call Cara Connolly (970) 845-2049 or email cconnolly@slifer.net.
