

Bali, Indonesia October 12-22, 2013

Amongst a backdrop of rich tropical plants, misty volcanic peaks, and rice paddies cascading down hillsides, awaits the surfing experience of a lifetime. Not only is Bali a fantastic cultural adventure, it is also an iconic and legendary surfing destination.

FDX Bali will be based at the legendary beaches of Kutu and Legian, renown for their sandy bottom peaks and year round consistency. These regions offer a variety of difficulty, so all surfers can be accommodated and those who wish to have their limits tested will be met by a very capable Indian ocean.

All participants will be outfitted with equipment to suit their needs and skill levels. Course instruction in safety, etiquette, skills and maneuvers will be presented to all participants, and adapted throughout the program to maximize the experience for the surfers.

You will be staying at the Tanaya Bed and Breakfast, which is strategically situated in the heart of Kutu; walking distance to Bali's best restaurants, entertainment and of course, surfers paradise.

In addition to surfing, the group will be saddling up on bikes for a peaceful tour of inland Bali. The tour features a first hand look at the daily life of Balinese families, offers breathtaking views, and a glimpse into the cultivation of rice...

Travellers will be met at Denpasar International Airport (DPS) in Bali, on October 12th, and from there, be transported to Kutu. Breakfast, lunch and dinner will be provided daily. Alcohol will not be provided for by First Descents, but is allowed! You will depart DPS on October 22nd.
