RESPONSIBILITIES:

The Operations intern should have excellent written and verbal communication skills and be able to manage several projects at a time. Furthermore, we are looking for an intern with a good sense of humor! Responsibilities will include, but are not limited to:

MANAGING DONATIONS: Input donations in an organized and efficient manner is a key requirement of the Operations Intern. This individual will need to collect and document client data, payment information, future planned gifts, and electronic funds transfers (EFTs). Furthermore, this individual will provide tax documentation for donors of First Descents, and send welcome packets to recurring donors. Finally, the Operations Intern will assist in running and analyzing reports from an up to date donor database.

RECONCILE DATA: Everyone loves good clean data! The Operations Intern will reconcile data between our accounting software and CRM software. The use of deduplication tools in order to "scrub" data within our databases to ensure accurate and up to date data will be a big project for this individual!

MAINTAIN AN EFFECTIVE WORKSPACE: Administration duties within this position include maintaining various email inboxes, and keeping First Descents Headquarters as efficient as possible by keeping the office fully stocked with office supplies.

OUT LIVING IT: It's our motto and succinctly sums up our core values of adventure, challenge, community, humility and humor. Saying it's important is an understatement. We live, breathe and sweat it every day – and as the newest member of our team, you will too.

INSIDE DETAILS:

This is a stipend position based at our HQ in Denver, CO. The Operations Intern is expected to contribute 15-25 hours per week for three months at our HQ office on weekdays between 8:30am-4:30pm (exact schedule is flexible). If you are a student, First Descents will work with you and your academic advising team to customize goals, responsibilities and projects to meet the academic internship requirements.
