The Out Living It Festival

More than a mountain sports event - it's a celebration of adventure and the power of community. The First Descents family is made up of kayakers, mountain bikers, rock climbers, and adventure seekers who have been bonded by a serious health condition. The Out Living It Festival will create a unique and special opportunity to connect, heal, and adventure-on together.

Location

Taking place in stunning Buena Vista, CO, from July 16-19, festival goers will experience the beauty of BV's South Main district and the incredible outdoor recreation it has to offer.

Community

At First Descents, we're all about authentic, powerful community! Staying true to First Descents' commitment to wellness, festival goers will enjoy breakout groups and nightly campfires on mindfulness, wellness, nutrition, and more. Engage your executive team or athlete ambassadors in discussions throughout the Out Living It Festival!

Adventure

It wouldn't be an Out Living It Festival without big adventure! Festival attendees will have the opportunity to enroll in whitewater kayaking, rafting, mountain biking, climbing, and hiking clinics throughout the weekend. Sponsor a clinic or activity to interact one-on-one with attendees!

Entertainment

Kick off the morning with sunrise yoga and cap each evening with live entertainment and music! Plus, the bustling vendor village offers an awesome opportunity to interact with attendees through gear demos, giveaways, games, and more. Now that's Out Living It!
